

THE NEW YORK INSTITUTE FOR PSYCHOTHERAPY TRAINING
In Infancy, Childhood and Adolescence
3701 Bedford Avenue
Brooklyn, New York 11229

CLINICAL CONSULTANT'S EVALUATION OF CANDIDATE

Clinical Consultant: _____

Start Date _____ End Date _____ # of Sessions _____

Candidate _____ Year in Program _____

After completing parts I & II and discussing both with your supervisee, submit by July 31st to:
Evaluation Committee, c/o Gloria Malter LCSW, 45 Plaza Street 1B, Brooklyn, NY 11217

I. Please assess the candidate's growth and progress, using a five point scale where 1 = no progress and 5 + = excellent progress.

1. _____ Forms a therapeutic relationship
2. _____ Engages a range of patients.
3. _____ Takes cultural variables into account
4. _____ Meets professional obligations ethically, reliably and responsibly.
5. _____ Maintains appropriate boundaries and consistency
6. _____ Is empathic and tolerant of the subjective states of the patient.
7. _____ Recognizes and works with transference both negative and positive.
8. _____ Recognizes and processes countertransference experience (both negative and positive) in response to difficult situations.
9. _____ Tolerates and works with angry and aggressive material in the transference.
10. _____ Is increasingly aware of latent content/symbolism in patients' material.
11. _____ Demonstrates a capacity to grasp and work within the play metaphor.
12. _____ Works with parents, school personnel, and others involved with the child.
13. _____ Assesses patients' pathology realistically and accurately; avoids judgmental, over-identified, or idealizing stances,
14. _____ Is learning to interpret resistance in a timely way and to work with it.
15. _____ Is learning to formulate diagnoses.
16. _____ Is learning to understand dynamics relating to patients' history.
17. _____ Is articulate in presenting therapeutic goals, both verbally and in writing.
18. _____ Is open to learning, makes use of supervision.
19. _____ Exhibits a growing understanding of psychoanalytic psychotherapy.
20. _____ Completes administrative responsibilities (paperwork) in accurate, timely fashion.

II. In a narrative statement, elaborate on any of these or other relevant aspects of the supervisee's functioning. Our purpose is to capture both positive and negative aspects of the supervisee's work, knowledge, attitudes, strengths and weaknesses. Please include anything that will clarify and give an accurate account of the supervisee's process and progress and the nature and focus of your work together. You may use the reverse of this form or attach additional page(s).